CEMETERY ON THE WILLIAM TED HOSIER PROPERTY

RED BRIDGE

Located on the East side of the South West $\frac{1}{4}$, Section 19, Range 26 East, a little way North of Red Bridge. This cemetery will be moved to the Mississinewa Memorial Cemetery on route 13, Wabash County, Indiana.

Jackson, Henry, born February 6, 1800, aged 60.1.12 The headstone is down and broken. There is a foot stone.

" , Anna wife of Henry Jackson born May 15, 1800, died March 6, 1882. Headstone standing.

" , Manerva, died November 29, 1859, aged 27.0.0

Julien , William, born August 16, 1802, died September 7, 1870

" , Abigail, born October 13, 1804, died December 10, 1869
The headstone for William and Abigail Julien was in scribed "Our Father and Mother". Headstone leans on pedestal.

Stewart, William, born May 30, 1813, died December 18, 1896.

Manning, Lydia wife of Silas Manning, born July 16, 1808, died December 19, 1879.
William Stewart and Lydia Manning inscriptions are on the same headstone which is standing. There is a foot stone for each grave inscribed "W.S." and "L.M."

A space approximately 8 x 10 feet is enclosed by the remains of a metal fence but no headstones are to be found inside the fenced off area though there must have been burials there.

Outside the metal fence there is a 10 inch stone with no inscription. It could be a foot stone.

Note: William Stewart lived North and a little East of this cemetery on land situated in the NE$\frac{1}{4}$, Section 19, extending a little over the Section line of the SE$\frac{1}{4}$, Section 18, both sections in R26E.

Comment: The Sugar Grove Cemetery will be moved to the Mississinewa Memorial Cemetery located on Route 13 within Wabash County, Indiana.

The Army Corps of Engineers have placed red flagged stakes marking graves they are sure of to around 60; there are quite a number of white flagged stakes also placed where the possibility of a burial is doubtful; the total of head-found, red and white flagged stakes indicate a sizeable number of people have been buried in this cemetery.
